RE: Request / Motion for Re-Consideration of the Order to Strike the Response Filed by Creditor Dinah Lynn Bolton to the Debtor's Forty-Fourth Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims - #2373 – Case No. 13-53846. (related document(s) [11231, 11230, 11255, 11283, 11287, and 11288])

Dear United States Bankruptcy Court :

I would like to Request / Motion for Re-Consideration of the Order to Strike the Response Filed by Creditor Dinah Lynn Bolton to the Debtor's Forty-Fourth Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims - #2373 – Case No. 13-53846. (related document(s) [11231, 11230, 11255, 11283, 11287 and 11288])

I would like to ask for the mercy of the Court for re-consideration of its Order and for the Court to rescind its decision to strike and allow this Claim to continue to proceed.

I would like to declare that as stated in my claim for the amount of $49,793.19 the following is true:

The Creditor received the Notice of Deficient Filing from the Court on June 9, 2016.

By receiving the notice from the Court on June 9, 2016, this only provided the Creditor with five (5) days instead of the seven (7) the Court stated in the Notice. The Notice stated that "the corrected/ missing document must be filed with the Court within seven (7) days of this notice." The Creditor did not receive notice of the Court's Notice of Deficient Filing until June 9, 2016.

By receiving the notice from the Court on June 9, 2016, and it providing the Creditor with seven (7) days to respond back to the Court, this gave the Creditor until June 16, 2016 to provide a response back to the Court.

The Notice that was received by the Creditor was postmarked on June 7, 2016 with a time stamp of 17 L or 5 p.m. Thus it could not have arrived at the Creditor's residential address until after June 7, 2016 thus not providing the Creditor with seven (7) to respond back to the Court. (See Attachment)

The Creditor would like to mention that the postmark and U.S. Postage stamp are not consistent with each other. The Postmark states June 7, 2016 at 5 p.m. However the stamp states March 24, 2016. (See Attachment)

The Creditor would also like to mention that the postmark and U.S. Postage stamp are not consistent with the Court notice that was sent on June 15, 2016. (See Attachment)

The Creditor would like to respectfully state that the Court notice was not sent out in a timely manner for the Creditor to respond back in a timely manner.

Two notices were supplied to the Court and the Debtor. The notice entitled "Proof of Service of Document" did have the Response named as the document that was initially served to the Court and Debtor.

The Certificate of Service and the Proof of Service of Document, both, had the reference number of the case listed on them as reference for the Response from the Creditor.
The Corrected Notice was in fact mailed on June 13, 2016 by U. S. Postal mail and received by the Court and Debtor by June 16, 2016.

The purpose of the noticing requirements were upheld with the Proof of Service document that was filed although it had Bankruptcy Court of California at the bottom of it.

The Proof of Service of Document was attached to the Certificate of Service Notice that the Court stated was missing the name of the document, thus it provided the name of the documents (the Response) that was submitted to the Court and Debtor.

The Proof of Service notice that was submitted by email and fax on June 3, 2016 to the Debtor and that was received by the Court on June 6, 2016 had the name of the Response to the Forty-Fourth Omnibus with sufficient references in the subject line to put the Debtor on notice as to what the documents pertained to.

In this point of the litigation in the matter, non-acceptance of the Proof of Service and the corrected Proof of Service notice would unfairly harm the Creditor.

Non-acceptance of the Proof of Service and Corrected Notice would unjustly enrich the Debtor and harm the Creditor's livelihood.

No harm would result to the Debtor because the Hearing was adjourned until August 31, 2016 and the Debtor has ample time to argue its case.

The Creditor was notified of the hearing being adjourned before the corrected notice was due to the Court and Debtor.

By granting the motion of the rescheduling of the hearing, the Debtor (City of Detroit) had ample notice of the Creditor's Response and submission of the corrected notice.

Based on these arguments, the Certificate of Notice was received in a timely manner and the filing deficiencies were cured in a timely manner.

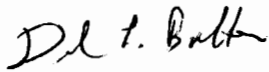

For these reasons the Creditor requests that this Honorable Court Re-consider its ruling and reverse its decision to strike the Creditor from the class action group.

For these reasons, the City of Detroit should not be allowed to disallow and / or expunge my claim.

I would like to request that I be excused from attendance to the hearing to be held on August 31, 2016, due to work assignments at the City of Detroit particularly during this time of transition in my Department.

Wherefore, for these proofs, the Creditor honorably requests that the Court re-consider its Order to Strike the Claim, and Pleading from the record, and re-instate it to the class action suit. (related document(s) [11230, 11231, 11255, 11283, 11287 and 11288])

Sincerely,

Dinah L. Bolton
